GUIDELINES FOR TENNIS SELF-RATING

To assure you have an equally matched, challenging game, rate your playing abilities by using this chart. Please do not underestimate or overestimate yourself. Feel free to use plus or minus signs to emphasize your true level of play. On the Player Questionnaire, please circle one level only. If you have questions about how to rate yourself, please call Steve Lundin at Alta Bates Summit Foundation, 510-204-1667.

ALL* STAR RATING

USTA Rating 5.0

This player has good shot anticipation; frequently has an outstanding shot or exceptional consistency around which a game may be structured; can regularly hit winners or force errors off short balls; can successfully execute lobs, drop shots, half volleys and overhead smashes; has good depth and spin on most second serves.

USTA Rating 4.5

This player has begun to master the use of power and spin; has sound footwork; can control depth of shots and is able to move opponent up and back; can hit first serves with power and accuracy and place the second serve; is able to rush the net with some success on serve in singles as well as doubles.

USTA Rating 4.0

This player has dependable strokes on both forehand and backhand sides; has the ability to use a variety of shots including lobs, overhead, approach shots and volleys; can place the first serve and force some errors; is seldom out of position in a doubles game.

USTA Rating 3.5

This player has achieved stroke dependability and direction on shots within reach, including forehand and backhand volleys, but still lacks depth and variety; seldom double faults and occasionally forces error on the serve.

USTA Rating 3.0

This player can place shots with moderate success; can sustain a rally of slow pace but is not comfortable with all strokes; lacks control when trying for power.

USTA Rating 2.5

This player has more dependable strokes and is learning to judge where the ball is going; has weak court coverage or is often caught out of position, but is starting to keep the ball in play with players of the same ability.
